
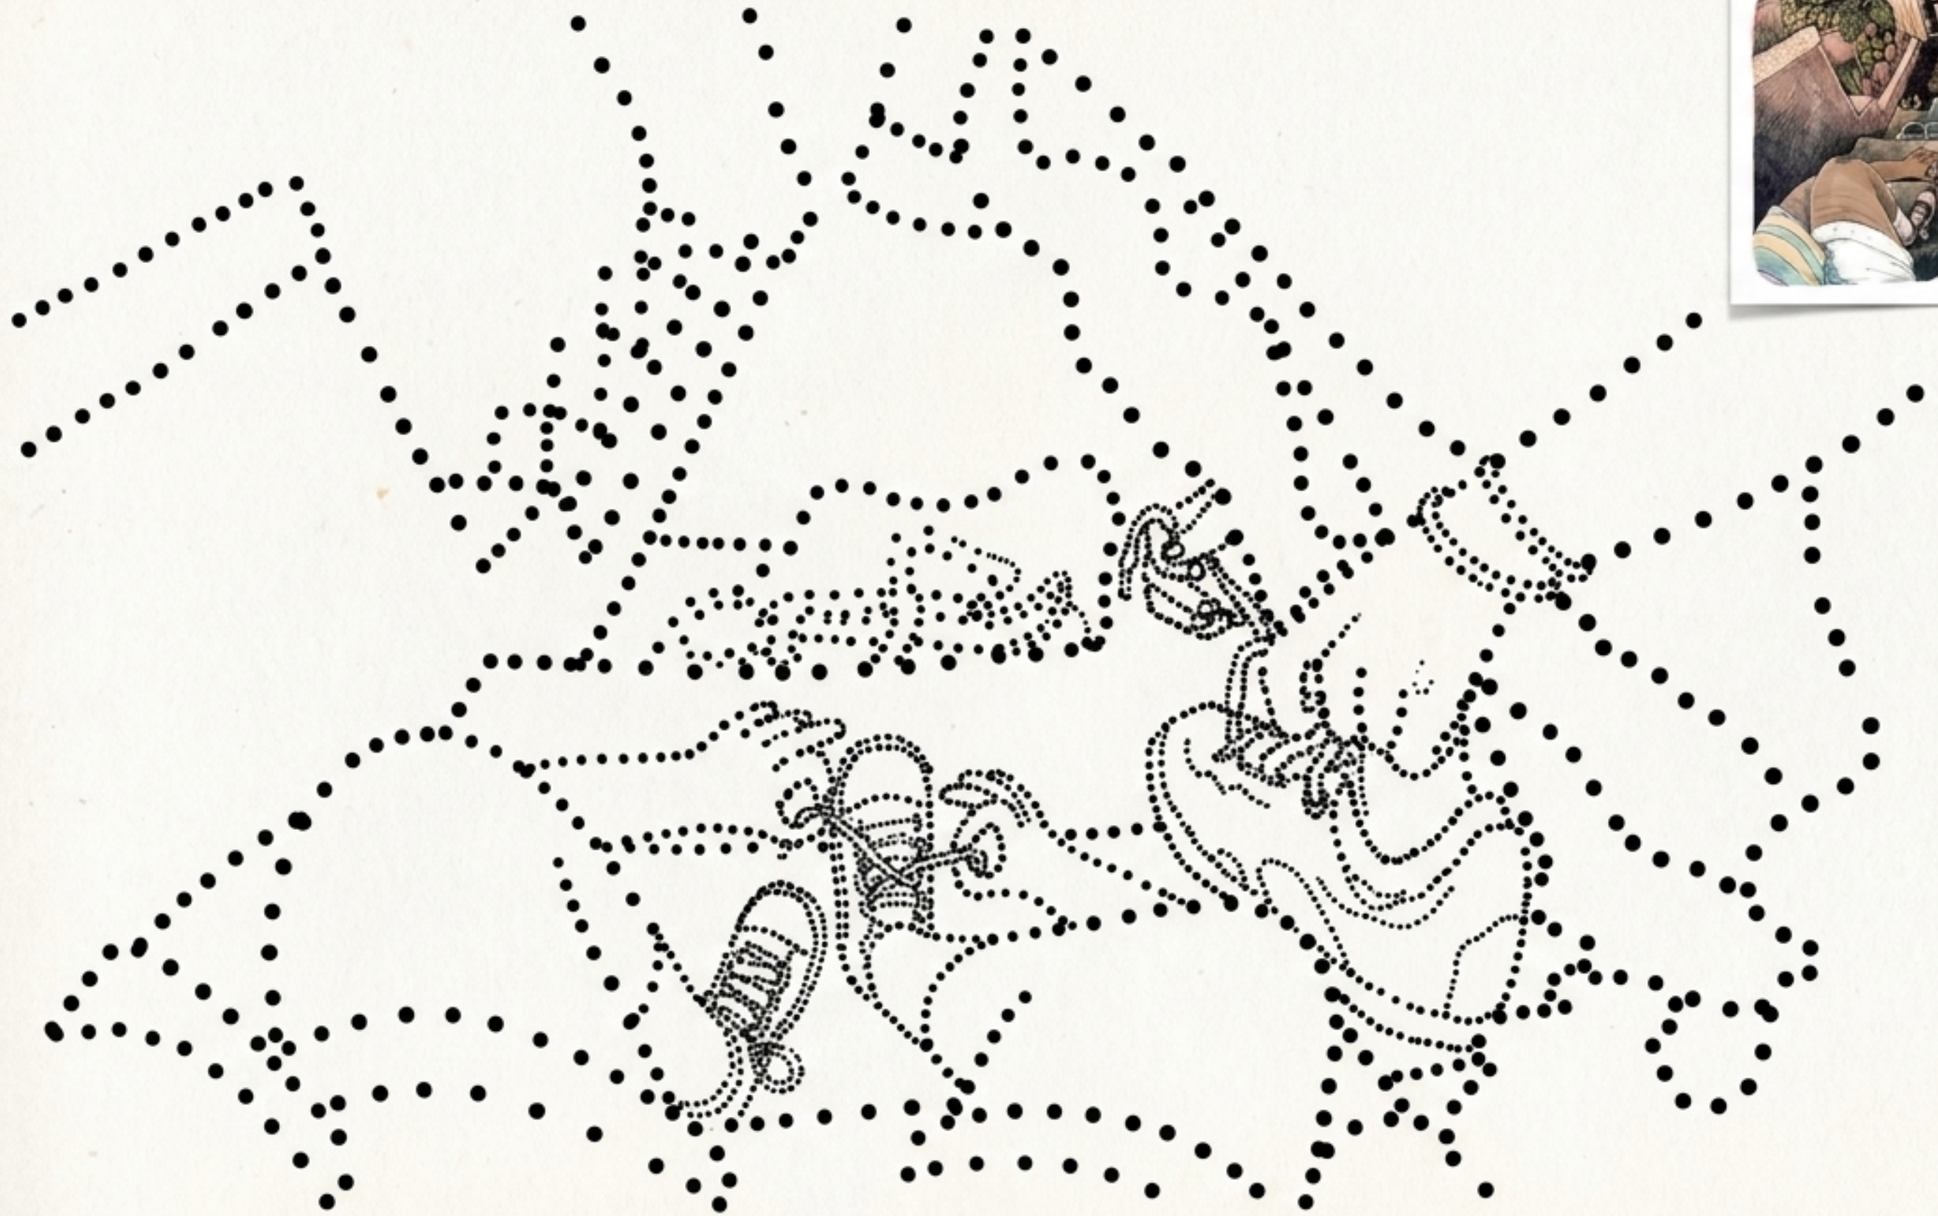
With My Pishi: A Connect-the-Dots Sketchbook

NotebookLM



I love going for walks. Especially with my Pishi.

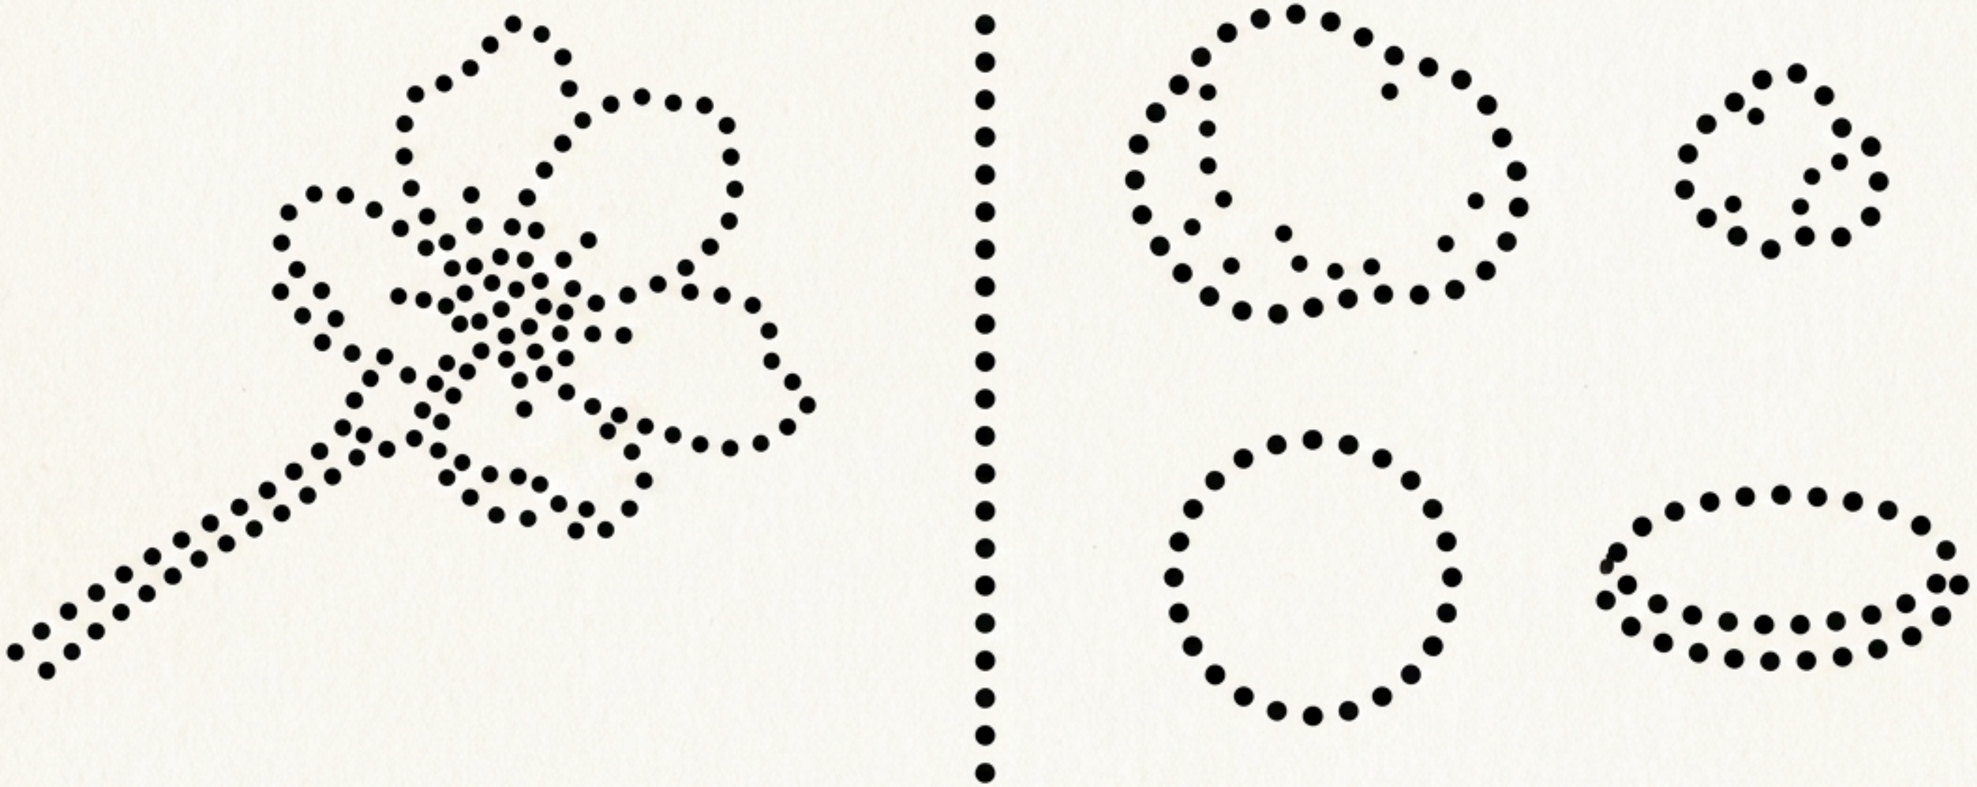
NotebookLM

I like it when Pishi holds my hand. But I like it even more... when she lets it go.

NotebookLM

...a dog, a cat, a rat, a crow, a tree.

NotebookLM

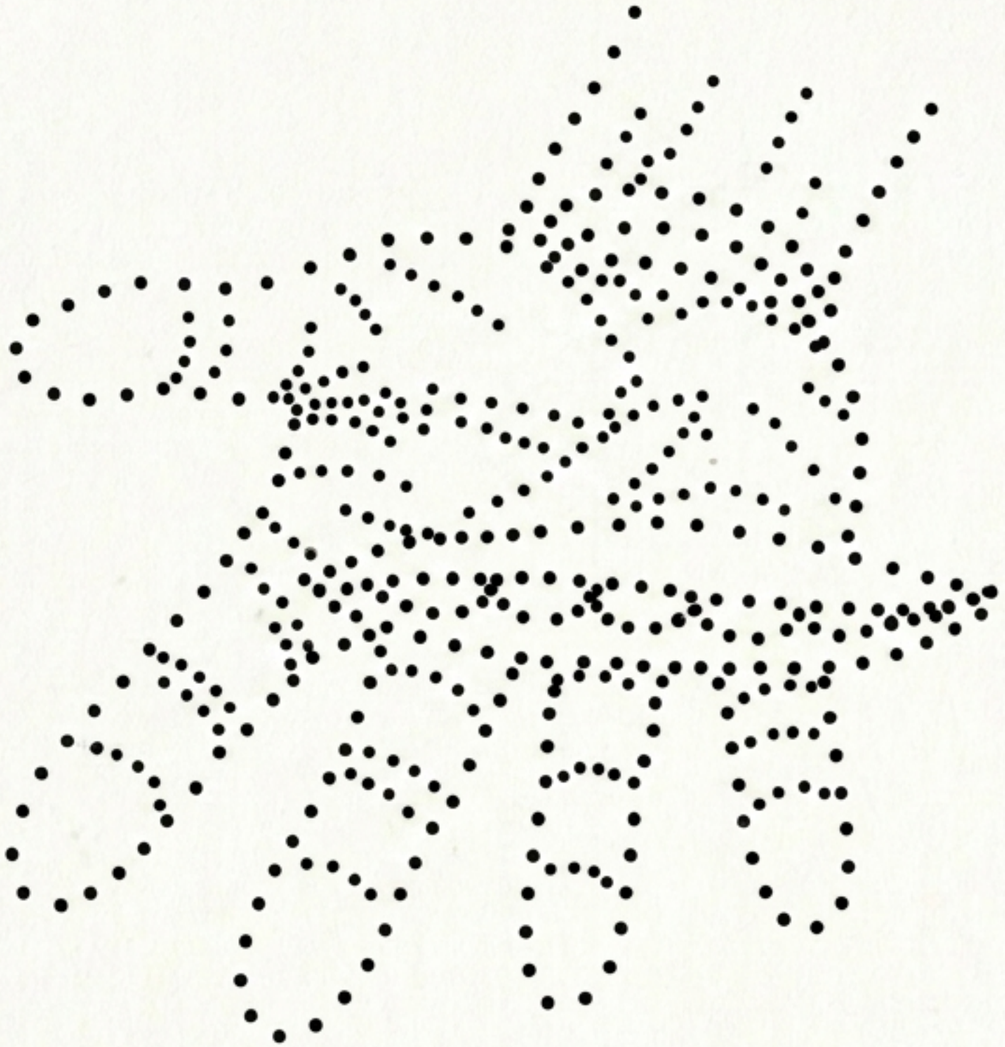


Pishi loves picking up flowers. I love picking up stones.

NotebookLM

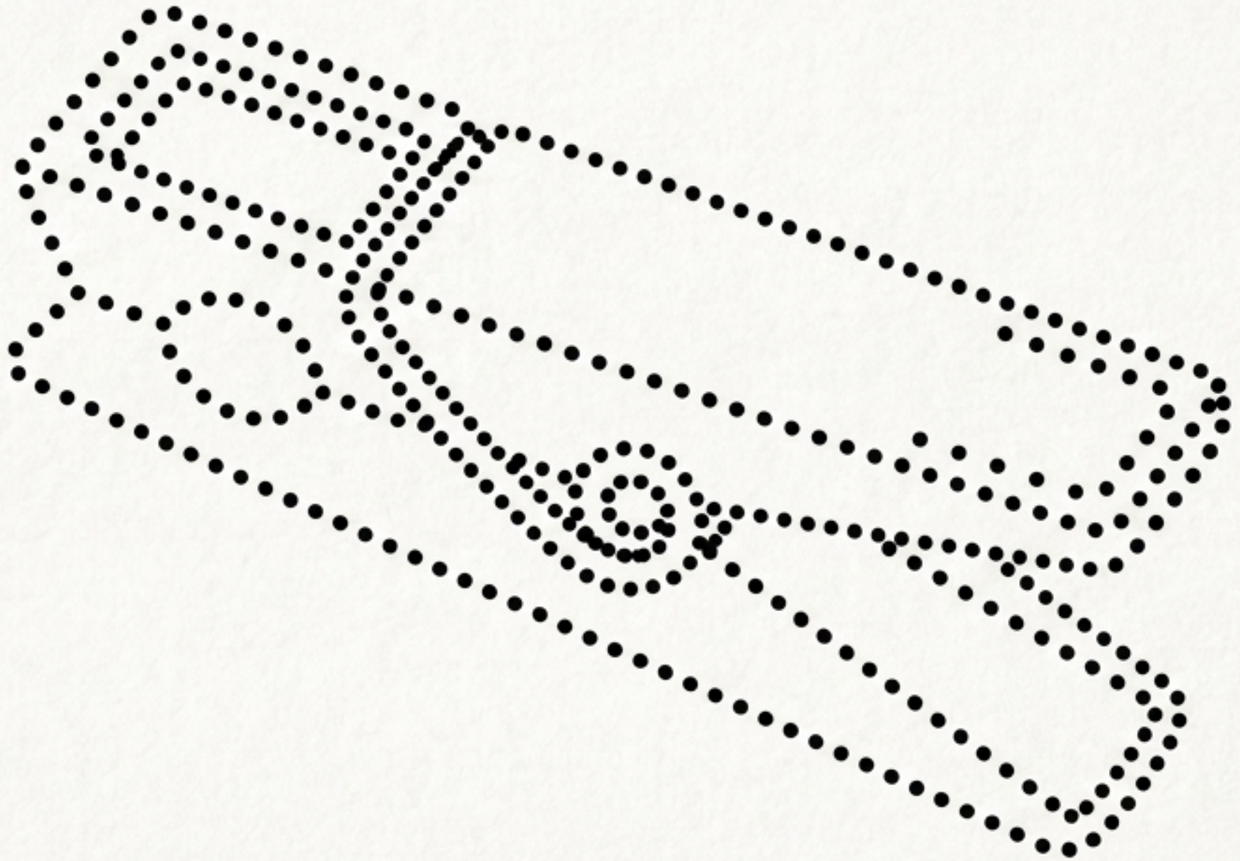
But the best are the really tiny ones. So tiny, they get lost in my pocket.

NotebookLM



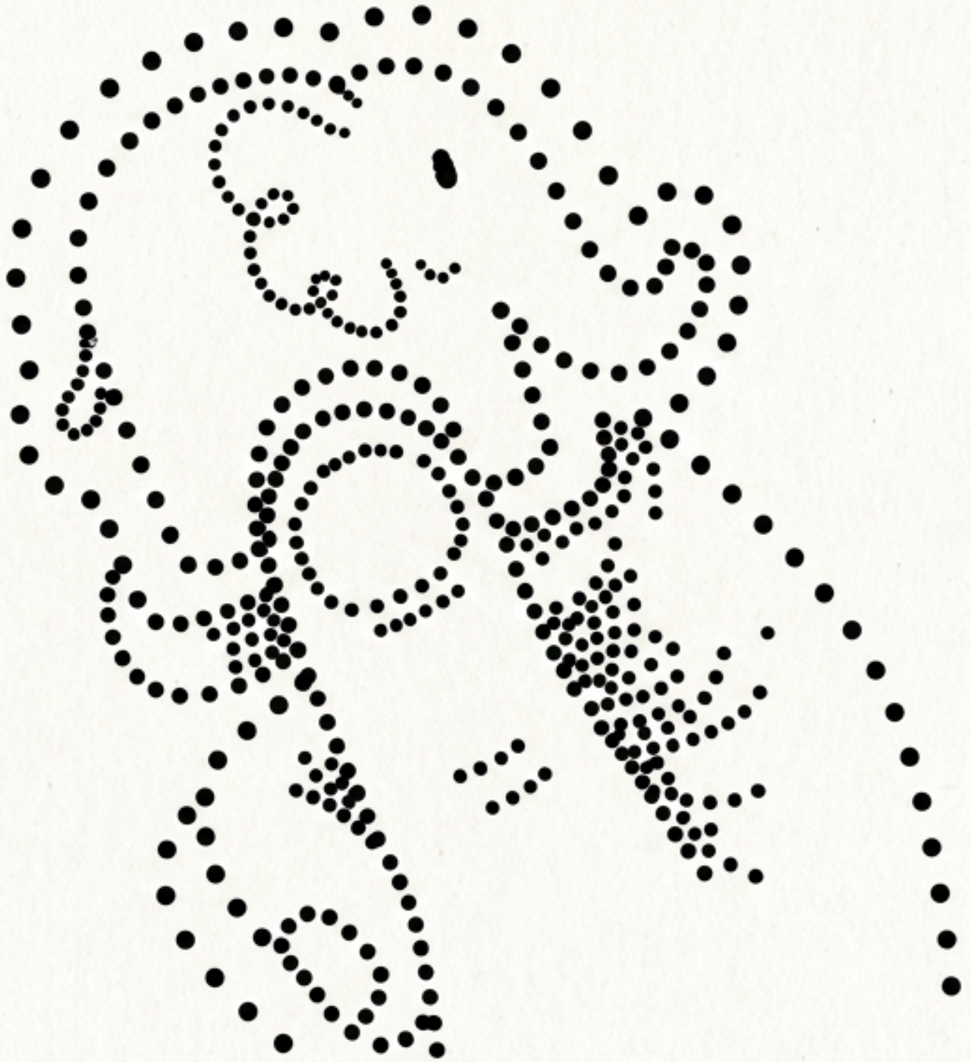
Today, Ajji gave me a pod of peas from her basket.

NotebookLM



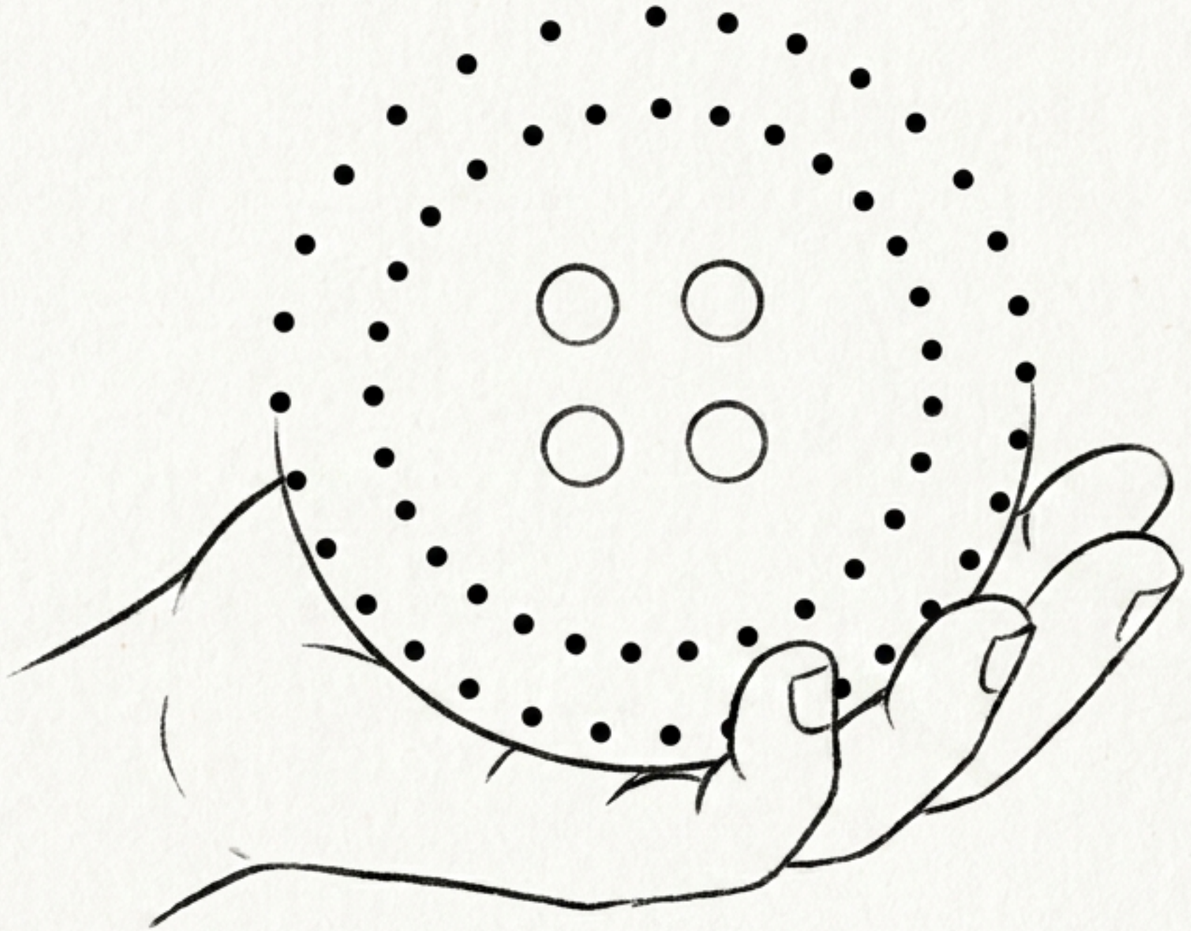
Dilip bhau gave me this clip from his magical shop.

NotebookLM



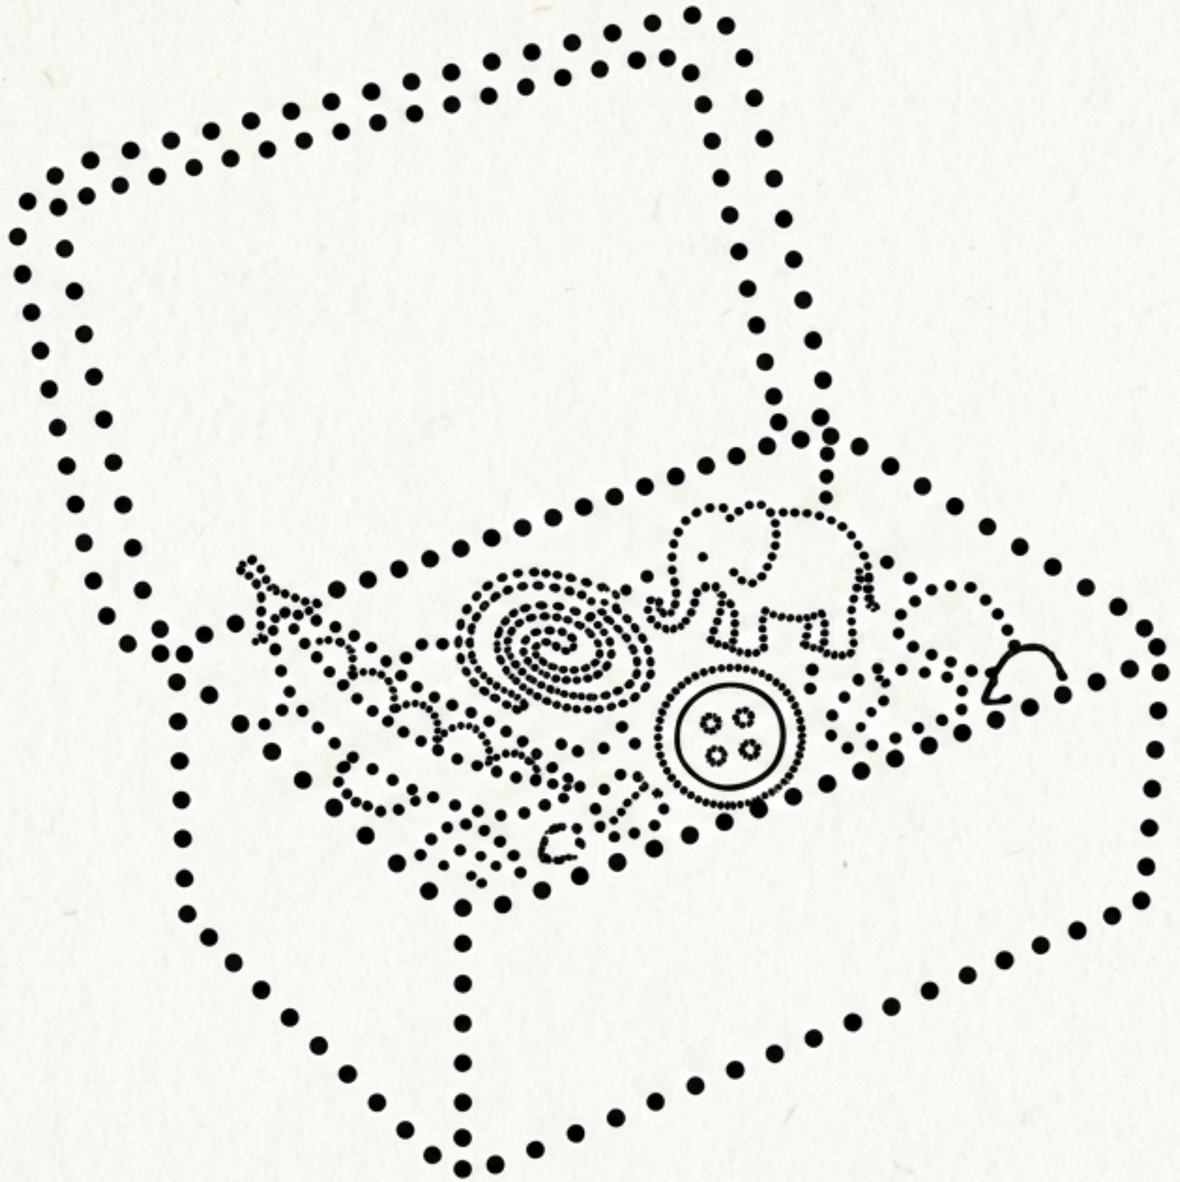
Nirmal didi gave me this sticker for quietly waiting, waiting and waiting.

NotebookLM



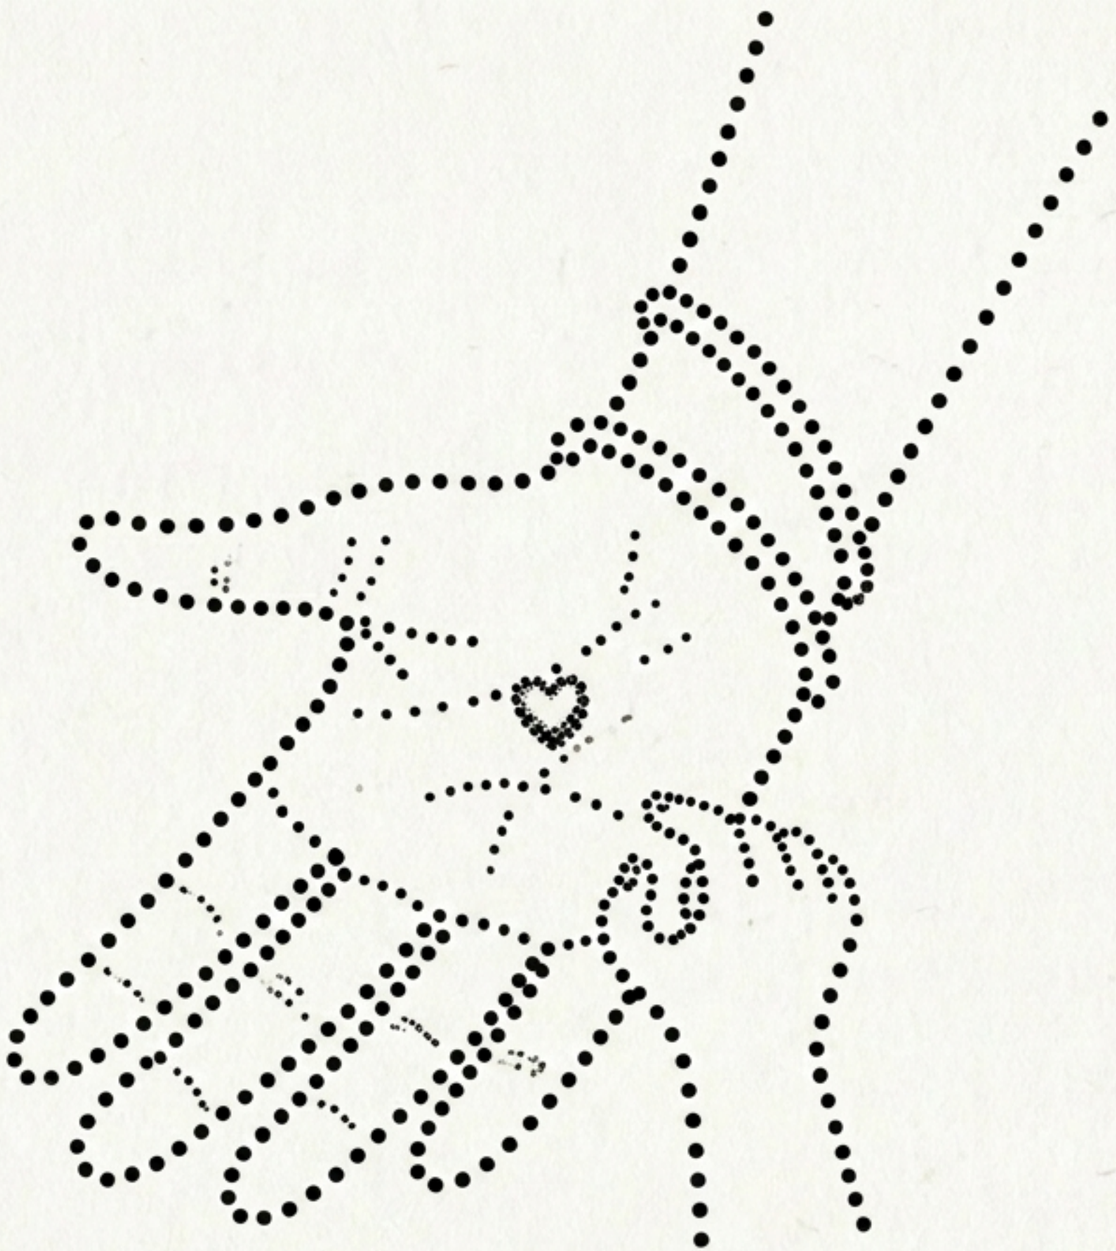
Anjum aunty gave me this button from her big button jar.

NotebookLM



When I get home, I'll empty my pockets and keep it all in my yellow box.

NotebookLM



If I find the tiny stone in my pocket, I'll give it to my Pishi.
